

Bob Emmott, Philadelphia Style's first photographer, is responsible for shooting the beautiful Holiday Rewards product spread in this issue. Unfortunately, due to an inadvertent oversight, we forgot to credit Bob for shooting the photographs in the Restaurant Section in our previous Fall Fashions issue. We offer Bob our most heartfelt apologies and thank him for doing an outstanding job.

Sylvia Pirkler, although born in Vienna, Austria, has made NYC her home for the past 20 years. Sylvia discovered her love for modeling and hair goals by accident when a makeup artist friend asked her to help out on a photo shoot 10 years ago. Since then, she has worked the fashion shows in New York and Milan, shot fashion and beauty editorials for Elle, Self, Grazia, Italian Vogue and QD covers for Sev's classical division, and has worked on TV commercials. Sylvia likes to be ahead of the trends—not follow them. Her credo is to clean it before it's soiled.

A resident of Chestnut Hill, Keiron Kaer returned to Philadelphia after twelve years of working in Boston, Los Angeles and New York City. Fashion styling is just one of Keiron's creative pursuits which come from years of being a fashion buyer, display artist, jewelry designer and just a general damn fashion junkie! "Contributing to the fashion and style of a new magazine is exciting. Working Philadelphia here around the last several years with goals of new shops and restaurants has created a fashion and lifestyle base that can be seen on the streets."

"From me to you" is the motto of Philadelphia Style event photographers Demici. Composed of the dynamic duo of Angel Torres and Sister Torres, Demici is always out and about, shooting Philly's social scene. From fashion shows and restaurant openings to charity benefits and fundraisers, Demici is there, capturing Philly's hottest moments with their own signature artistic flair.

George Peluso Making a career of telling people the time with their new vehicles and driving a seemingly endless procession of brand new automobiles brought this Philadelphia-based writer to the edge of the abyss. From the darkness a sparkling car appeared... You've got mail! Car reviews are a nice diversion from high-pressure politics and entertainment programs for KatHudra, Kippi, Shannon, Tap Dig, Electric Factory, The Uprising and Wichita Needs 6' Street and dozens of corporate clients. Besides, the car gig guarantees a great primary car!
